

Saturday 20th April

The Howard Lecture Theatre, Downing College.

8:30am-9:15am Registration

9:15am-9:25am Welcome

9:30am-10:10am Professor Jonathan Gillard, Professor of Neuroradiology, University of Cambridge.

“MR imaging of the carotid: can we assess the risk of stroke?”.

10:10am-10:40am Dr Tonny Veenith, Specialist Registrar, Neuroanaesthetist, Addenbrookes Hospital Cambridge.

“Investigating acute neurotherapeutic options with MRI “.

10:40am-11:20am Refreshments

11:20am-11:45am Mr David Biddle, Senior Neuroradiographer, Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge.

“The physics and application of dual energy in carotid stenosis”.

11:45am-12:20pm Mrs Diana Day, Stroke Nurse Consultant, Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge .

“ Stroke treatment-now and the future”.

12:20pm-12:45pm Ms. Jennifer Ellison, Senior Neuroradiographer, Western General Hospital, Edinburgh.

“Brain incidental finding: shark infested waters”.

12:50pm-2:00pm Lunch

2:00pm-2:40pm Professor David Menon, Consultant Neuroanaesthetist , Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge.

“Using Neuro-imaging to understand early pathophysiology and late clinical outcome in traumatic brain injury.”

2:40pm-3:00pm Ms. Ann Taylor, Angio Superintendent Radiographer, National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery

“Radiographer led IV Dyna CT in the follow up of endovascular intervention”.

3:00pm-3:20pm Refreshments

3:20pm-3:40pm Mr Mark Terry, Senior Neuroradiographer, Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge.

“Getting it in the neck”-A case study.

3:40pm-4:10pm Mr Rikin Trivedi, Consultant Neurosurgeon, Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge.

“Minimally invasive spinal surgery”.